Marty Sinn beat all women and finished second overall in the 24 km (15-mile) Canadian National Exposition (C.N.E.) in Lake Ontario in 1962 and 1963. In 1963 she was beaten by IMSHOF Honoree Abdulla Latif Abou-Heif in the C.N.E but won the overall female title that year for the World Professional Marathon Swimming Federation. In 1963 Marty was the first woman in the 36 km (22.5-mile) Around the Island Swim in Atlantic City, USA and was first female in the swim in 1964 - sharing the podium with IMSHOF Honoree Herman Willemse. She also swam a professional marathon swim in the Suez Canal in Egypt.

Expanded Biography (Openwaterpedia)

Long Swims Database (Marathon Swimmers Federation)