

Dr. Julie Bradshaw, MBE, Honor Swimmer, Great Britain, 2006

Personal Website

Dr. Julie Bradshaw, MBE holds more than 10 world records for long distance and Channel swimming dating from 1979. She was awarded MBE in New Year's Honours list 2006 for "Services to swimming and charity". Since the age of 15 years old, Dr. Bradshaw has raised many thousands of pounds for charity. The money raised from Channel swim in 1979, began the Fylde Hospice in Blackpool. She served as a Director on the Board of The Channel Swimming Association and the Assistant Secretary. Her world records include the first relay triple-crossing of Loch Ness in 32 hours and 34 minutes in 2005, relay double-crossing of the English Channel in 19 hours and 7 minutes in 2004, butterfly crossing of the English Channel in 14 hours and 18 minutes in 2002, butterfly crossing of 16.8 km (10.5-mile) Lake Windermere in 6 hours and 7 minutes in 1991, and a 67.5 km (42-mile) quadruple crossing of Lake Windermere in 21 hours and 17 minutes.

Expanded Biography \(Openwaterpedia\)

Long Swims Database \(Marathon Swimmers Federation\)