

Freda Streeter, MBE, Honor Coach, Great Britain, 2005

Personal Website (None known)

Freda Streeter started in marathon swimming as an observer and trainer for coaching her daughter, IMSHOF Honoree Alison Streeter, MBE, the Queen of the Channel®, on her historic 34 hour and 40 minutes triple-crossing of the English Channel in 1990. Her son Neil is also a successful channel pilot. Freda spent five months every year for more than twenty years training hundreds of English Channel swimmers on the weekends in Dover Harbour. Dozens of English Channel swimmers owe their success to Freda's training, support and advice. Upon retirement her swimmers successfully applied to have her honored with an MBE.
