

Trevor Smith, Honor Administrator, Great Britain, 1998

Personal Website - (None known)

Trevor Smith was one of the founding fathers of the British Long Distance Swimming Association, serving as its Honorary Treasurer for over 25 years until 1981. He was instrumental in establishing the Lake Windermere International every four years as the primer event for amateur marathon swimmers around the world. He was the 1948 Morecambe Cross Champion and was the 1977 British Long Distance Swimming Association Veterans (Masters) Champion. His leadership contributed greatly to the selection of the British Long Distance Swimming Association (BLDSA) as an Honor Organization by the IMSHOF.
